CONCESSIONAL REGISTRATION USAGE

It has been brought to my attention that recently a vehicle with such registration (S plated) was pulled up by the police and checked that the vehicle was being used within the SIV's guidelines. The outcome was it was. The owner had the necessary paperwork with him i.e. current membership details of his incorporated Club and paperwork showing that he was on a Club run. If he had been using the car outside the guidelines on usage he would have been fined between $230 and $690 and possibly lose his concessional registration and have his insurance revoked – BE AWARE!!
